DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1, 2, 4 & 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Richard (U.S. Patent Number 5649558). Richard discloses the tubular frame assembly (10) including leg members (26, 28, 36, & 38), each having the foot portion (40, 42, 44, & 46), cross frame members (12 & 14), and at least two spaced horizontal support members (22 & 32) to support the limbs of an archery bow in a generally horizontal position. See Figure 1.

Regarding claim 2, Richard discloses the plurality of leg heights adjustments devices (27 & 37) as part of the leg members (26 & 36) to conform to the variety of interior floor and seat configurations between different vehicle makes and models (column 3, line 18 – 23).

Regarding claim 4, Richard discloses the horizontal support members (22 & 32) are covered in the protective foam material (24 & 34) to prevent damage to the limbs while in transit. See Figure 1.

Regarding claim 5, Richard discloses the foot portions (40, 42, 44, & 46) of the leg members (26, 28, 36, & 38) are covered with end caps (48) to protect the interior surfaces of the vehicle. See Figure 1.

Regarding claim 6, Richard discloses the leg height adjustment devices comprise telescoping leg members (column 3, line 15 – 24).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 3 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Richard (U.S. Patent Number 5649558 in view of Dodge (U.S. Patent Number 5660637). Richard discloses the invention substantially as claimed, however, Richard does not disclose a plurality of length adjustment devices as part of the cross frame members to conform to the verity of interior floor and seat configurations between different vehicles makes and models. Dodge teaches the plurality of length adjustment devices (158) as part of the cross frame members (150 & 160) (column 6, line 11 - 14). See Figure 1.

Regarding claim 7, as stated above in claim 3, Dodge discloses the length adjustment devices comprising telescoping cross frame members. See Figure 1. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the cross bars as taught by Dodge in order to allow multi-functional flexibility.
